

Bio for Srinivas & Vijaya Raghavan

Dr. Srinivas Raghavan and his wife Vijaya reside in San Diego, California. They founded one of the three Sai Centres of San Diego and conducted it at their home for over ten years. They are committed to Sai Baba's mission and maintain an open and loving home filled with His love.

Srinivas has been a leader in the service of Sai in various capacities including the Sai Youth Representative of Southern California, Sai Spiritual Education (SSE) Teacher, and President of the Sai Centre. He has conducted workshops for SSE children, teaching human values and the importance of self confidence. He has organised various community service projects focused on under-privileged children. Srinivas has also been conducting and coordinating Sai Leadership Workshops for youth and adults. Presently he is serving as the National SSE Coordinator for Sathya Sai International Organisation, USA and is leading the International SSE Program as a member of the Education Committee in the Sri Sathya Sai World Foundation.

Srinivas is very blessed in being Sai's instrument. He has composed many devotional songs such as, 'Remind me my Lord', 'Chant the name of God', 'Sai you are my heart and soul' and 'Sai mere darasa dikhao', some of which are sung in various Sai centres. In his presentation he will be sharing Sai's message of love through personal experiences and devotional songs. Srinivas received his MS & PhD degrees in Computer Science (Ohio State University) specialising in the study of Human Computer Experience. He also received an MBA degree (Rady School of Business) specialising in Innovation Management. Presently he heads his own consulting firm, iYOUSE Inc., working with leading companies in wireless technology, healthcare and education.

Vijaya is a sincere devotee who loves Sai whole-heartedly and supports all the activities of the Sai Centre. She has served as the President and SSE coordinator for the NE San Diego Sai Center. Both Srinivas and Vijaya serve as teachers in the SSE program and fill their lives with the Divine fragrance of Sai's love.
